

Death may approach

Greg de Bleick

♩=110

Am

1. Death may ap-proach, I shall not flee, for dai - ly I have trained to be a -
 2. No long-er warmed by Sa-tan's fires, yet burned by un - re - formed de- sires.

- live to— Christ and dead to sin. Death can-not end what Christ be - gins.
 Spi - rit of God, at - tend our flesh. Foun-tain of life, our souls re- fresh.

1. Em Fmaj7 G⁶ | 2. E/D Fmaj7/A G⁶ Am F G Am

3. Whe - ther at risk to life or limb

C Dm Em F Am

e - ver our hope is found in Him. As Je - sus suf - fered,

G Dm⁷ Am F G Am

so shall we, but not be - yond His wise de - cree.

F C/E Gsus⁴ F C/E Gsus⁴

Am Em/G F C Gsus⁴ G

4. Take up his yoke where free - dom reigns. In love He chas - tens those he trains.

Am Em/G F Gsus⁴ E/D

Joy has its root, and grace its key in pa-tience and hu - mi - li - ty.

Am F G Am F Dm Esus⁴

5. Ma - ny the saints who fell be - fore. Grief for our loss is fresh and sore.

F C Em Dm⁷ Am F G Am

Though death may hold them for a day, Je-sus has con-quer-ed: so shall they.

Am F G Am F Dm Esus⁴

6. Hal - le - lu - jah! Christ a - rose bear - ing the wounds He glad - ly chose;

F C Em Dm⁷ Am F G Am

em - blems of pain trans - formed by grace, sins can - celled out, joy in their place.